

WEEKLY JOURNAL-MINER

PIONEER PAPER OF ARIZONA

PRESCOTT, ARIZONA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 14, 1914.

FIFTY-FIRST YEAR

YOUNG ADVOCATES TO PREVENT WAR NON-PARTISAN TICKET REACHING OVER THE BORDER

AND IN VERY FACE OF DENUNCIATION BY E. S.
CLARK OF THAT POLITICAL PRINCIPLE

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
George L. Young, Progressive candidate for governor of Arizona, made the first political speech of the campaign in Prescott at the meeting held at the New State theatre building last night, and was followed by J. Ralph Tascher, candidate for county attorney, J. L. B.
Alexander, candidate for attorney general, B. Nelson, candidate for United States senator, and Earl S.
Ford, candidate for clerk of the superior court.

E. S. Clark introduced the speakers, and in the presentation of Mr. Young spent fifteen of the twenty minutes he fulminated, handing out a lot of billingsgate concerning the Journal-Miner, which seems to be the great thorn in the side of this person which prods him into a frenzy nearly every time he attempts to make a speech either in court or at a public meeting. His particular grievance last night seemed to be the non-partisan ticket this paper has printed at the head of its editorial columns, and the burden of his remarks were that the Journal-Miner this campaign had decided to stand for a non-partisan ticket whereas heretofore it had been a straight republican paper. In direct contrast to the billingsgate of Mr. Clark, however, Mr. Young declared that he believed a strict partisan in this day and age of the world to be a menace to good government, declaring that had "no use for him whatever." Whether this was the reason for Clark calling the candidate for governor down before he had finished his address, is not known, but he notified Mr. Young to quit before he was more than half through with a set speech.

Clark said Roosevelt was the "foremost man in civilization." He declared that the paramount issue in this campaign was prohibition, and glorified his party that it stood with the drys. Then, as if everything else had escaped his mind, he launched a tirade of abuse against this paper. "Do you read the newspapers?" he asked. Replying in the affirmative to his own question, he continued in about the following vein: "I do not mean the Journal-Miner."

WAR INDICATES SECOND COMING OF CHRIST

PHOENIX, Oct. 12.—That the tremendous European struggle, calamities upon land and sea, the frequent strikes, hold robberies, and at the same time the continued predictions of peace and safety are ominous signs that esus Christ will soon return to earth in the clouds of heaven, accompanied by great hosts of angels, was the statement of Elder J. E. Bond, president of the Arizona Conference of the Seventh Day Adventists on the campground at North Tenth and Pierce streets here. The meeting will continue to and including October 18. Business sessions will be held, probably till next Tuesday, when the time will be given more fully to evangelistic and health subjects.

OFFICIAL SUICIDES.

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Harry Woods killed himself here early yesterday. The body was found with a bullet wound in the center of the forehead this morning in a garage at the rear of his residence. He left no note of explanation. The only clue is a bundle of papers showing extensive dealings in grain through a Chicago brokerage house. The vacancy in the secretaryship will be filled by appointment.

NACO, Oct. 12.—The American battle line has been extended along the international line by the border patrol to prevent the Mexican factions again bringing their warfare into American soil. This follows a second appeal to the president by citizens of Naco, Arizona. Sheriff Wheeler asked Governor Hunt to have the federal troops withdrawn. The situation was turned over to him.

Assaults Repulsed.

Arizona Thinks Of Old Christopher

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

While there was no particular program carried out yesterday or until last evening, Columbus day was quite generally observed in Prescott by the closing of all public offices, the banks, postoffice, county offices and many business houses. And last night the Knights of Columbus, Yavapai Council, 1032, gave a dance which was well attended and all that could be desired by the most exacting. The committees which had the function in charge were: Entertainment—Fred H. Eckert, J. C. Butler and Harry Shumate; Reception—Robert E. Morrison, Joseph H. Morgan, P. J. Koehane, E. J. F. Horne, P. H. Stack and James Fitzgerald. There were twenty-two numbers on the dance program.

Thirty-two states of the union observe Columbus day as a legal holiday. This is the first year it has been a legal holiday in Arizona, the first state legislature making it such, the movement having been inspired by the Knights of Columbus, which is a strong order in this state. Columbus landed in the West Indies 422 years ago yesterday.

Tourniquet Is Twisted On All Sources Of News British People Are in the Dark as to Success of Their Armies; Austrians Claim to Have Repulsed Slav Forces at Przemyzl; Russian Cruiser Torpedoed

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The finger of the censor having twisted a tourniquet on all sources of news from Belgium, just now perhaps the most important scene of fighting in the great war, the British people are forced to content themselves with a change in the situation favoring either side.

From the east came tidings of a decided reversal in form, the dispatches both from Vienna and Petrograd indicating that the Austrian army at Przemyzl, so often reported surrounded, hopelessly outclassed and on the verge of surrender, had turned on the Russians with the aid of reinforcements and forced them to retreat. The first news of this claim emanated during the morning from the Austrian capital and it was followed later by what purported to be a Petrograd admission that the Russians had abandoned the siege of Przemyzl for strategic reasons with the object of drawing up a new line against the Austro-German army in other points of Galicia.

The British Belgian troops, who retired from Antwerp before the German occupation, with the exception of those interned in Holland as a result of crossing the Dutch border, have been swallowed as completely as if they had been buried under the ruined forts. For military reasons their positions and the area of hostilities in Belgium must remain obscure until a turn of events brings them sharply to the fore again, as when after Antwerp's fall the British public learned for the first time that British forces had been there.

RUSSIAN CRUISER TORPEDOED.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 12.—An official communication announces that on Sunday the Russian armored cruiser Pallada was torpedoed in the Baltic sea by a German submarine and sank with all her crew. It was also announced that an unsuccessful attempt was made by submarines to sink the cruiser Admiral Makarov last Saturday. The crew and officers of the Pallada numbered 568.

FIGHTING ON LEFT BANK OF VISTULA.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 12.—The following official statement was issued tonight: "On October 11th, fighting began on the left bank of the Vistula in the direction of Ivangorod, Warsaw. There is no change at other points on our front, detachments of Russian cavalry having passed through defiles in the Carpathian mountains and having emerged into the plains of Hungary."

DISCOVER IMPORTANT DOCUMENT.

Story for the present series. For three hours and six minutes the two teams alternately led, tied, or forged ahead in the score of a game that began in the bright sunlight and was won in the deep twilight with electric signs flashing outside the park and the evening stars glimmering overhead. While not the best played game of the series from the standpoint of technical baseball, it so abounded in dramatic moments, thrilling plays and baseball strategy that the thirty-five thousand spectators who filled the stands were lifted to the superheights of enthusiasm by the struggle.

Philadelphia scored in the first and Boston tied in the second. In the fourth each added another run. The game continued without advantage for either side until the tenth inning when each team scored two. In the last of the twelfth Gowdy doubled, Mann running for him. ## THOUSANDS FALL BUCK COLORADO IN ATTACK ON RIVER IN FORTRESSES AUTO

LONDON, Oct. 12.—A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says: "It is stated that the Germans lost 45,000 men during the attack on the fortresses Waelhem and Wavre and St. Catherine at Antwerp. News of the German movements between Antwerp and Ostend up to the present is fragmentary and contradictory. The Germans are maintaining their customary secrecy. Reports from Belgian and Dutch sources of heavy repulses to the Germans with heavy losses are looked upon with askance.

The capture of Ostend is conceded to be worth the possession of many Antwerps to the Germans, so it is taken for granted that they will not enter that port without fighting every foot of the way.

TOWN OF GHENT IS OCCUPIED BY GERMANS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 13. (Tuesday).—The Belgian town of Ghent is now occupied by the Germans, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to Reuters. The Uhlans have arrived at Selzaete, a short distance from Ghent, and the commander announced that six thousand soldiers must be quartered in the village.

Ashurst To Be In Prescott The 31st

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

The Democratic county central committee has been promised a speech by Senator Ashurst in Prescott Saturday evening, October 31, and has already commenced to plan for it, the desire being, among the leaders of the party in Yavapai county, to make this the real, big event of their campaign so far as this section of the state is concerned.

County Attorney O'Sullivan, F. L. Haworth, Mrs. F. W. Munds, A. W. Davis and P. J. Farley, and the other democratic candidates returned Sunday from holding two meetings, one Friday night at Jerome and one at Seligman Saturday night, both of which were well attended. Mr. O'Sullivan, Mrs. Munds and P. J. Farley were the principal speakers, each candidate participating to a greater or less extent. These two meetings end the activity of the democratic candidates until next Saturday night when they are to hold a rally in Prescott, at which it is expected many of their state candidates will be present and address the people.

REIGN OF TERROR LASTS THREE DAYS

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 12.—An attack made on the night of October 10th on San Angel Xechimilco and other suburbs of Mexico City by adherents of Zapata caused a reign of terror in the capital until today. The suspense was relieved when it was officially announced that Zapata's followers agreed to cease all fighting until the termination of the peace conference at Aguas Calientes, the troubles in the suburbs having been satisfactorily adjusted.

RIVERS WINS.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 12.—Joe Rivers of Los Angeles was given the decision over Frankie Russell of New Orleans in an eight-round battle tonight.

TWO PATHFINDERS HAVE THRILLING EXPERIENCE WHEN IN TREACHER- OUS WATERS

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

"The Perils of Pauline," do not compare with the thrills of "Navigating the Colorado River in a Metz car," said Harry Locke and Fred L. Wing, who arrived here yesterday en route from Los Angeles to Phoenix on a trial trip over the race course.

Locke was still exercised over his close call, when he arrived in the city yesterday, and briefly told his story of the dash into the muddy stream at the Topock crossing, when the barge broke loose from the motor boat and the treachery of the whirlpool almost made him believe the "jig was up." Locke gives a vivid recital of the strenuous hours of being jarred to pieces as the frail little barge was ricocheted first to the California and then to the Arizona side of the stream. "It was a sort of a tango dance with all hands circle to make the play good," he said. The undertow was frightful, and to make the situation more dangerous the nose of the rescue motor craft was smashed to pulp.

It couldn't connect with the barge and finally it seemed as if Providence must step in if the car was to be saved. A sand bar hove in sight on the Arizona side when the rescue was made. With its own power the Metz got a foothold on the bank and scrambled up to the roadway. The trip was then made to Kingman, and from that city to Prescott nothing eventful took place. An old Colorado river sea dog when informed of the occurrence, said: "You fellars had a sneaky time, and I wouldn't have been in your boat for all the autos ever built, and the purse of the race that is being hung up, thrown in."

Both autoists state that the Needles bridge will be planked and opened for auto traffic next Monday, when the danger of ferrying across the river will cease.

Their Metz car seems to be equal to the task of negotiating difficult highways. It dropped into the Grand Canyon via Peach Springs five weeks ago, and came up on its own power, on a grade that few cars could undertake, said Wing. It's like the old Eli race horse, "it gets there," he says.

BOMB ATTACKS BY GERMANS CONTINUE

PARIS, Oct. 12.—German aeroplanes at 10:15 this morning dropped bombs between two railroad trains pulling out of the northern railroad station. The missiles did not explode. The trains were crowded with passengers. Yesterday German aviators dropped bombs, killing three and wounding fourteen. Gen Hirschauer has been appointed to take charge of the aerial defense of the city.

Cholera is spreading rapidly to the remotest district of Austria. Austrian troops in Galicia are being vaccinated against the disease. The cold weather caught the soldiers unprepared and the authorities are making urgent appeals to the public to contribute warm clothing.

SMALL BLAZE.

Sunday night at about 11 o'clock a small fire was discovered in the coal shed in the rear of the Elks theatre, which was easily extinguished without damage.

LAI TO REST.

The funeral of Morris Crump, the Walker mining man, took place Sunday afternoon from Ruffner's chapel, and was largely attended, as well were the floral offerings numerous. Rev. Jenkins officiated and the pallbearers were A. J. Doran, Ed. Wicks, J. P. Score, Joe Stein, Gus Dahlin, and W. S. Comer, all residents and mining men of Lynx creek.
